- Aspirational and ambitious for the whole school community
- Ability to communicate clearly and confidently to children, staff, parents and the wider community
- A willingness to get involved with wider school life and a genuine passion for celebrating children's achievements, large and small

What the School Offers Its Staff

"Soaring High"

Stockham Primary School is a one-form entry primary school in a well-established residential area where you will be welcomed by a friendly buzz of energy. The school community is emerging from a challenging period of change but a core team of experienced staff provide a strong base to take our school into its next exciting chapter. Our school values of collaboration, 'give it a go' attitude, focus, resilience, responsibility and thinking it through are embodied by our staff, providing positive role models for our children.
