Job/Person Summary

This is a great opportunity for an enthusiastic and dedicated LSA to join our friendly and hard-working team on a fixed term basis, to cover staff maternity leave. The LSA role will involve supporting children in class as well as delivering interventions to small groups and to specific children on a one to one basis.

We are looking for someone who:

- has high expectations of children's achievements.
- has a caring, nurturing approach to classroom practice
- is able to create a stimulating learning environment.
- is proactive in making best use of their time and able to work well as part of a team.

We can offer you:

- lovely children who behave well and enjoy learning
- the chance to grow and develop within a supportive and highly skilled LSA team
- a supportive leadership team
- a good work life balance
